RIGHT TO BE

Working to build a world that's free of harassment and filled with humanity. Every day, we train hundreds of people to respond to, intervene in, and heal from harassment.

We are a global team of educators, motivators, and facilitators listening, guiding, and cheering you on. The world we want isn't some far-off destination. It's something we create and recreate, bit by bit, every day. It's imperfect, courageous, beautiful work. It's us. Here. Now.

It also includes models on intergroup contact theory, which have been tested in several regions of the U.S. by diverse peoples. The cookbook concludes with more promising community building models.
